EXPERIENCE

PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS LLP

New York, NY

Senior Associate Intern, Capital Markets Advisory

06/14 – 08/14

Project Management

- Managed a work stream for a leading investment banking client, developing business requirement documents (BRDs) to guide the firm during its transformation to a new regulatory platform
- Provided analysis and built exhibits for a large Japanese banking client, used in the structuring of a Resolution Plan or "living will" required of institutions that pose a risk to the global financial system

BNP PARIBAS, CORPORATE AND INVESTMENT BANKING

New York, NY

Client Services Analyst, Prime Brokerage (February 2010 – May 2013)

07/08 – 05/13

Rotational Analyst, Trading Operations (July 2008 – February 2010)

Analytical Skills

- Appointed to a Six Sigma improvement initiative which led to a realignment of the internal structure of the Fixed Income Documentation team, improving trade processing by three days
- Wrote six spreadsheet macros for the equities trading desk, translating large sums of raw data and analyzing information pertinent to the team's risk exposure and overall profit and loss

Client Driven

- Delivered over 20 presentations to existing and prospective clients, directly resulting in strengthened client relationships and the opening of eight new accounts
- Instituted over 15 new reporting tools for clients by coordinating Business Analysts and IT teams in Paris and London, allowing BNP to gain competitiveness among its peers

Risk Management

- Reduced the number of unconfirmed credit default swaps with 60 hedge-fund and institutional counterparties, mitigating operational risk during the 2008 global financial crisis
- Developed a process control to reconcile erroneous trades, eliminating potential overnight risk exposure and standardizing reporting procedures to meet with regulatory standards
